

Government of the District of Columbia

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL
DISTRICT BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20004

IN REPLY REFER TO:
OCC:CD:MLG:dl

April 18, 1986

Ms. Peggy Robin
Chairman, Advisory Neighborhood
Commission 3-C
Government of the District of Columbia
2737 Devonshire Place, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20008

RE: Your Request for Representation in Bartsch v. D.C. Advisory Neighborhood Commission 3-C, Civil Action No. 86-0854

Dear Ms. Robin:

This is in response to your letter of April 11, 1986, requesting representation of Advisory Neighborhood Commission 3-C and its present and former commissioners who have been named as defendants in the above-referenced Bartsch complaint. It appears clear from your letter, from the materials attached to your letter and from your conversations with Martin Grossman, Deputy Corporation Counsel in charge of the Civil Division, that the actions taken by you and your fellow commissioners were taken in your official capacity as members of Advisory Neighborhood Commission 3-C. Therefore, this Office will provide representation for you and your fellow commissioners in this lawsuit and the District of Columbia Government will indemnify you and your fellow commissioners for any damages which may be returned as a result of conduct taken within the scope of your duties as members of Advisory Neighborhood Commission 3-C.

This case has been assigned to Assistant Corporation Counsel Richard Love, who is located in the District Building-Room 318, 1350 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20004. Mr. Love can be reached on 727-6340.

Please advise Mr. Love as soon as you or any of your fellow commissioners receive service of process in this case.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "John H. Suda".

John H. Suda
Acting Corporation Counsel, D.C.